

Anna Chan
Executive Vice President
Economic Development Board

Ms Anna Chan is the Executive Vice President of the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB) and a member of EDB's Executive Committee.

Previously, she held various roles within the Planning and Policy divisions and was responsible for developing initiatives to support business operations. She was also the General Manager of EDB Investments Pte Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of EDB that is responsible for making direct and fund investments in companies and projects that are aligned with EDB's overall economic thrusts.

Anna joined EDB in 1991. She graduated from the National University of Singapore with a Bachelor of Accountancy and completed the Harvard Advanced Management Program in 2011.